General Points

Good Points:

- Puddings have improved in the lunches.
- Everyone is glad that the collecting cards aren't being banned.
- Everyone likes the idea of corridor duty being given to more people.
- New windows are good.

Improvements

- The house captains should be looking around school as well as in the corridors.
- The classes are asking whether they can choose the school menu again.
- There should be a suggestion box for meals.
- Rock band would be good if it came back.

Writing

What do we like already in writing?

- Children like getting straight in to writing at the start of the year.
- Creative writing is good.

What would we like to do with writing?

- Make writing fun!
- Have a book day more often.
- Children want to be more involved in the planning of what they learn about.
- Children want more genres and less time building up to writing.
- Children want to plan writing more.
- Children want different guided reading books.
- Children want to have a list of guided reading books so that they can read more at home.
