

Great Missenden School Volunteer Information Leaflet

An Academy of the Great Learners Trust

Thank You for Volunteering

We are delighted to welcome you as a valued member of our school community. Your time, energy, and enthusiasm make a real difference. Volunteers play a vital role in enriching the learning experiences and wellbeing of our pupils. This leaflet provides essential information to help you understand your role and support a safe, positive environment for everyone.

Our Safeguarding Commitment

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is at the heart of everything we do. As a volunteer, you play a crucial role in this commitment. Always keep the best interests of the child at the centre of your actions and follow our safeguarding procedures at all times.

Before You Begin

Induction & Training

You will receive a thorough induction covering safeguarding, health and safety, and school policies relevant to your role. Additional training may be provided as needed.

DBS Clearance

To work unsupervised with children, you must have an up-to-date DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) check.

Your Role and Responsibilities

- Arrive on time and inform the school if you are unable to attend
- Follow instructions from staff and ask questions if you are unsure
- Maintain confidentiality—do not share any personal or sensitive information about pupils or staff
- Do not share your personal contact details (phone number, address, social media, or personal email) with pupils
- Treat all pupils, staff, and fellow volunteers with respect and kindness
- Report any concerns about a child's welfare immediately to the Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL)
- Do not investigate concerns yourself or discuss them with the child

Safeguarding Procedures

- If a child discloses information to you, listen calmly and reassure them without promising confidentiality
- Record the details accurately and pass them to the DSL immediately
- If you have concerns about the behaviour of any staff member, report these to the Headteacher. If your concern involves the Headteacher, contact the Chair of Governors via the school office
- For more details, please refer to the Child Protection Policy available on the school website
